

Kant on Introspection, Self-Consciousness, and Self-Knowledge

Conference Program | May 1-2, 2015

Friday's conference session will all take place in Mabel Lee Hall (Google map link), room 230. Saturday's session will be in Architecture Hall (Google map link), room 127. Coffee and light pastries will be available prior to, and in between, sessions.

Friday, May 1

- 9:30-11: Yoon Choi (Marquette), "Inner Sense and the 1787 Deduction"
 - 11:15-12:45: Clinton Tolley (UCSD), "Distinguishing Inner Sensation, Intuition, Perception, and Experience"
 - Chair: Daniel Smyth (Chicago)
 - 12:45: Lunch
 - 2:30-4: Andrew Chignell (Cornell), "Content Externalism and the Refutation of Idealism"
 - 4:15-5:45: Beatrice Longuenesse (NYU), "Kant on 'I' and the Soul"
 - Chair: Nick Stang (Toronto)
 - 6:30: Dinner for speakers and chairs at Sebastian's Table
-

Saturday, May 2

- 10:00-11:30: Sasha Newton (UIUC), "Kant and the Transparency of the Mind"
- 11:45-1:15: Anil Gomes (Oxford), "Unity, Passivity, Objectivity"
 - Chair: Andrew Roche (Centre College)
- 1:30: Lunch
- 3:00-4:30: Andrew Brook (Carleton), "Apperception and Dark Representations"
 - Chair: Colin McLear (UNL)
- 5:30: Drinks for all conference attendees at Schorr Presidential Suite in the Center for Great Plains Studies (Google map link)
- 6:30: Dinner for all conference attendees at the Schorr Presidential Suite